An impoverished orphan tries to win a place as a painter in Tutankhamens unbuilt tomb. When his father dies, young Ramses life begins to fall apart. Life on their farm had been so wonderful, as steady and bright as the Egyptian sun. Now, however, hes an orphan in his own home. People whisper that Ramses caused his fathers death. They say his skill at drawing is something no farm boy should have. They say his drawings angered the gods, who struck down his parents as punishment. Its a thought too horrible to face. Could it be true in the dark days that loom ahead, Ramses begins a desperate search for answers about his identity. This well researched story, set in the golden era of Tutankhamen or King Tut, combines fact, fiction, and the magic superstition that formed an important part of life in ancient Egypt. Anyone interested in archaeology and art history will be fascinated with this inside look into the lives of tomb builders: the people who painted, sculpted and carved the ancient burial sites of Pharaohs. The village that...
