But there are other men who, like William Ashe, are of a more eclectic and catholic turn of mind; and who are probably less successful at the University than they are in after-life, by reason of these very tendencies. William Ashe matriculated at St. Old s. Now, although St. Old s was not a large college, the various degrees of University men were fairly represented in it at the time of his residence there. The College set was more or less a fast one; that is to say, it was composed of men who were for...
