

Jesse Crosse

By Michael J. Moran

Parkhurst Brothers Publishers Inc. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 192 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.4in. x 0.5in. Mike Moran first attended Little Rock Catholic High School for Boys-all four years. On the basketball team, he was a point guard. Then, as Mr. Moran, he taught English for forty years, also at Little Rock Catholic High School for Boys. Recently retired, Moran wrote the boys a novel. The tale revolves around a struggling small-town basketball team with a nerdy manager and a Walter Mitty-esque coach. Presented with too few players to scrimmage in practice, the manager takes it upon himself to spread the word throughout the school: We need you on the team. Three young students appear, diminutive in stature and with scrawny chests, unimpressive at first sight. But with the trio, and their fleet leader Jesse Crosse, the team first experiences shock, then inspiration and constant surprises. The team bonds, leading to stories that will be retold a very long time in a small, out-of-the-way town. Its not a long novel; like ones high school years, it goes by before you know it. Only the message is eternal. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La...
