BIG NANA AND JOEY (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A suffocating family.High anxiety.Hot Latino beauties.Joey doesn't have a chance in hell of becoming a babe magnet until he confronts these adversaries. Big Nana and Joey is a comic novella about a boy who fights his insecurities and a stifling Sicilian grandmother to persist in his pursuit of libidinous pleasure. The story is crafted from humorous and inspirational events in the author's adolescent life. It's the sixties in Valencia City, an ethnic community in Florida, where Latinos and Sicilians live side by side, along with their goats and chickens, an enclave where salsa dancing and Saturday night cockfights titillate working class immigrants. Carnal envy,that's what drives pubescent Joey crazy. He lives in the shadow of best friend Rick - a hormonally-gifted hunk - who snares olive-skinned beauties at a dizzying pace. Joey wants to emulate him, but first he must deal with Big Nana. She doesn't give a damn about his corporeal desires, save his penchant for pizza, pasta and gigantic meatballs, which she prays will fatten him into a pudgy opera star. What's a babe-magnet wannabe with a big voice and larger-than-life Nana supposed to do? He puts on forty pounds of muscle, perfects the art of academic mediocrity, chases head majorette Ophelia until she promises to date him (that is, when he can dunk a basketball.backwards). His shenanigans fail to impress. Just when life seems dismal and dark, our protagonist scores a major victory, not with the lovely Valencia gals, but over his most feared rivals - the brilliant boys from St. Vincent's Academy for Catholic prodigies. This metamorphosis from bad boy to brain surprises everyone,...
