Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Bulletin of the Public Affairs Information Service: A Cooperative Clearing House of Public Affairs Information; Sixth Annual Cumulation Public Affairs Information Service offers its sixth annual cumulation with a feeling that some real progress has been made during the past year. The removal of the Editorial Office from The H. W. Wilson Company to the Economics Division of the New York Public Library has opened up many possibilities of extending the field of the Service, most of which have been impossible of accomplishment during the first year. The opportunities offered by this contact with a large reference library were not overestimated by the Committee in setting forth the advantages of the plan. Through the courtesy of the Library, incoming books, pamphlets and documents are examined each day so that everything which falls within the scope of the P. A. I. S. is immediately available. There are also available for regular examination many economic and trade periodicals not elsewhere indexed. This system makes for more prompt service and also affords opportunity for more discriminating selection than...
