DEATH OF A DYER: A MYSTERY

Minotaur. 1 Cloth(s), 2013. hard. Book Condition: New. Revisiting weaver Will Rees from A Simple Murder (winner of the 2011 Minotaur Books/Mystery Writers of America First Crime Novel Competition), Eleanor Kuhns again submerges us into the late 18th century. Rees, a widowed Revolutionary War veteran, is back on his Maine farm, living with his teenaged son David and his housekeeper Lydia (whose presence contributes more towards his happiness than he's ready to admit). But his domestic bliss is shattered by news of an old friend's murder. Rees and Nate Bowditch were once closer than brothers, but when Rees visits the Bowditch farmstead looking for answers, he finds that everyoneNate's frosty wife, his missing son, and even the shy serving girlis hiding something. "During the Revolutionary War, Rees investigated and solved a homicide within the army. This time, Rees is driven by honor to find a killer when he learns that his best friend from childhood, Nate Bowditch, has been brutally murdered in his own home. What is fascinating here is watching how Rees' motivation increases with the difficulty of the investigationhe receives a cold reception at his old friend's home, especially cold from the local doctor, who seems to be involved with his friend's widow. Finding excuses and opportunities to investigate reveals the admirably flinty character of this sometime sleuth. Rees, the weaver, is a wonderful creation."Booklist (starred review) 341.
