Excerpt: .be seen falling from the sky, and burning up in the air. The fall of the year is the best time for meteors; but you will be pretty sure to see one any evening you choose to look for it, and, perhaps, on the Fourth of July one of them will celebrate the day by bursting like a rocket, as they sometimes do. M E R The pretty flowers have come again, The roses and the daisies; And from the trees, oh, hear how plain The birds are singing praises! The grass is fresh and green once more The sky is clear and sunny; And bees are laying in a store Of pure and golden honey. The little modest buttercup, The dandelion splendid, Their heads are bravely holding up, Now winter s reign is ended. m How charming now our walks will be By...
